

VILLALOBOS BROTHERS

"THIS IS AMAZING!... I HOPE THE WORLD GETS TO EXPERIENCE THIS".

– MARION J. CAFFEY, PRODUCER, APOLLO THEATRE.

The Villalobos Brothers have been acclaimed as one of today's leading Contemporary Mexican ensembles. Their original compositions and arrangements masterfully fuse and celebrate the richness of Mexican folk music with the intricate harmonies of jazz and classical music.

The ensemble's virtuosic performances have delighted audiences throughout Latin America, India, Russia, Canada and in more than 30 states across the US. They have performed in historic venues and events including Carnegie Hall, Lincoln Center, the Latin Grammy Awards, Davies Symphony Hall, Montreal Jazz Festival, the Ford Theatre in Hollywood, the 60th Anniversary of the United Nations, the New Victory Theatre on Broadway, San Jose Jazz Fest, Celebrate Brooklyn, the 66th FIFA Congress in Mexico City, the Blue Note Jazz Festival and the Apollo Theatre.

The Villalobos Brothers were born and raised in Xalapa, Veracruz, Mexico. They spent their childhood listening to their grandmother Cristina Vásquez sing and play guitar and accordion. They took up the violin at the age of 4 and quickly learned to sing and play other instruments including piano and guitar.

In 2018, they joined forces with Arturo O'Farrill and the Afro Latin Jazz Orchestra for the "Fandango at the Wall" project. This ambitious undertaking, produced by Kabir Sehgal, united legendary international musicians for a live concert at the Tijuana-San Diego border wall which resulted in a live album and documentary film to be released in 2019.

The Villalobos Brothers recently premiered their Symphonic Project, performing sold-out concerts with both the San Francisco Symphony Orchestra and the Walla Walla Symphony.

The ensemble has collaborated with legendary musicians including Grammy winners Bruce Springsteen, Dolly Parton, Antonio Sánchez, Regina Carter, Eduardo Magallanes, Dan Zanes, Sierra Hull, and Ana Tijoux.

The Villalobos brothers are actively touring the United States, delivering a powerful message of love, brotherhood and social justice with brilliance, cadence and virtuosity.

Their new album "Somos" will be released in 2019.

"A CRAZY BALL OF SOUND:
MEXICAN COASTAL TRADITIONS MEET SAM
COOKE IN THE BRONX!"

– DAN ZANES, GRAMMY AWARD WINNER, USA TODAY.

VillalobosBrothers.com